

In the Style of Harvey Mason from the theme to the TV show "Barney Miller"

Introduction musical notation on a single staff. The notation includes a bass line with a half note, a snare line with a half note, and a hi-hat line with a half note. Above the hi-hat line, there are two measures of notation: the first measure is labeled "hi hat open close w/foot" and the second measure is labeled "hi hat open-close". To the right of the hi-hat line, there is a crash cymbal symbol labeled "crash cymbal" and a ride cymbal bell symbol labeled "ride cymbal bell".

Verse

Verse musical notation on a single staff. The notation includes a bass line with a half note, a snare line with a half note, and a hi-hat line with a half note. Above the hi-hat line, there are four measures of notation, each labeled "hi hat open close w/foot".

Chorus

Chorus musical notation on a single staff. The notation includes a bass line with a half note, a snare line with a half note, and a hi-hat line with a half note. Above the hi-hat line, there are four measures of notation, each labeled "hi hat open close w/foot".